

TWO-DAY TRAINING IN ERICKSONIAN HYPNOSIS WITH BOB BERTOLINO, PH.D.

WHEN

June 11 & 12, 2026
9:00am-4:00pm

WHERE

Associated Bank
10044 West Florissant Ave.
St. Louis, MO. 63166

REGISTRATION FEE

$250.00 (with a master's degree or doctorate in marriage and family therapy, counseling, counseling psychology, psychology, or social work)

$175.00 (students in a graduate degree program listed above)

2 ways to register:

- 1) Go to <https://www.bobbertolino.com/shop>
- 2) Venmo registration fee to: @Robert-Bertolino

SPACE IS LIMITED!

12 CONTACT HOURS

A certificate of completion for 12 contact hours will be provided.

PARTICIPANTS WILL LEARN:

- The differences between traditional and Ericksonian approaches
- A framework for hypnosis
- Elements of hypnotic induction
- How to utilize clients' inner resources for healing
- Indications and contraindications for hypnosis

Participants will also:

- Observe live and recorded demonstrations
- Practice hypnotic strategies from induction to intervention

PRESENTER

Bob Bertolino, Ph.D., is Codirector of the Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program and Professor of Psychology Counseling at Maryville University. He is also Sr. Clinical Advisor at Youth In Need, Inc. and Director of Ethics for the International Center for Clinical Excellence. He has taught over 750 workshops throughout the United States and 11 countries and authored or co-authored 17 books. Bob is licensed as a marital and family therapist and professional counselor in the state of Missouri, is a National Certified Counselor, a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor, a National Board Certified Fellow in Clinical Hypnosis, and a Clinical Fellow of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.